

Serving Century, Jay, Flomaton, and the Escambia Counties of Florida and Alabama

Greetings Northern Neighbors!

It is with great pleasure that I share with you the formation of the Tri-City Children's Choir (TCCC), a regional initiative of the Pensacola Children's Chorus. TCCC is a community youth choir that welcomes young singers in grades 2-6 who reside in Century, Jay, Flomaton, and the surrounding communities in the Escambia Counties of Florida and Alabama. I am grateful for the vision of Holley Driver, a well-respected Century-based music teacher who will serve as TCCC's conductor; and the full support of Century mayor Benjamin Boutwell. Together, we are overjoyed to create a high quality, transformative opportunity in music and performance for the youth of the Tri-City region.

At face value, a choir is a group of like-minded individuals united by a common love of music. While TCCC certainly matches this basic description, the value of this group is so much more. Choral singing—collaborative music-making at its best—is laden with opportunities for immense personal and social growth. By studying music, participating in rehearsals, and sharing performances with the community, singers learn invaluable lessons in responsibility, teamwork, accountability, empathy, and confidence. In this, TCCC not only strives to inspire talented young musicians, but to mold them into assured individuals and powerful contributors to their community.

TCCC is fortunate to have passionate advocates in the Tri-City region; however, they alone cannot sustain our operation. This is why we need your help! Through our support of this program, PCC has pledged its industry knowledge and administrative resources to ensure TCCC can get on its feet. However, we need the community's support to help offset TCCC's operational expenses and prepare for a prosperous future. Additionally, we are committed to ensuring that TCCC is accessible to all interested youth, regardless of their family's discretionary income. As such, we also seek your support to provide scholarships to singers in need.

Your financial support is crucial to ensure that the Tri-City youth have access to a transformative music education. In the following pages, you'll learn how you can become a philanthropic partner of TCCC. Any charitable contribution is tax deductible.

To be clear, we are asking your support for the Tri-City Children's Choir, not the Pensacola Children's Chorus. Your contribution will specifically support TCCC initiatives. Simply put, 100% of the money you invest in TCCC will directly benefit TCCC!

I used the word invest because we understand that every contribution toward our charitable cause is an investment. Our shareholders are you, the members of the community in which we serve. I invite you to join us as an investor in the Tri-City Children's Choir. Together, we will create a vibrant choral program that will undoubtedly become a source of community pride. Moreover, it will make a lasting impact on the young people of the Tri-City area.

Thank you for your consideration!

With gratitude,

Alex M. Gartner

About the Tri-City Children's Choir

The Tri-City Children's Choir (TCCC) was formed in January 2022 with a vision to provide a transformative experience with music and choral singing for the youth who reside in Century, Jay, Flomaton, and the surrounding communities in the Escambia Counties of Florida and Alabama. TCCC is led by Holley Driver, a respected Century-based music educator. Her vision is supported by Benjamin Boutwell, mayor of Century, and Alex Gartner, Artistic & Executive Director of the Pensacola Children's Chorus. TCCC is a regional program of the Pensacola Children's Chorus.

About the Pensacola Children's Chorus

The Pensacola Children's Chorus (PCC) is a prominent, not-for-profit, community youth-centered performing arts program serving Northwest Florida and Southwest Alabama. Founded in 1990, PCC grew from a children's choir initiative of the Pensacola Symphony Orchestra. Now in its 32nd season, PCC's flagship Resident Choir Program boasts 9 distinct choirs for singers in grades 1-12. Catering to 300 singers per year, these choirs present 25-30 public performances each season, notably within the Mainstage Performance Series. These include Christmas on the Coast (a Radio City Hall-type holiday spectacular); One World, Many Voices (a traditional choral concert emphasizing world music and the themes of hope, unity, and social justice); and Showtime (a Broadway-style performance featuring music from stage and screen).

PCC is committed to being a regional leader in music education by breaking access barriers to high quality music education. TCCC enables PCC to more fully realize its vision of a community that is transformed through music. This program, along with many others throughout the region, support PCC's mission of impacting the lives of young people and enriching our communities through the performing arts. PCC's unique curriculum leverages music education to impart social and emotional skills. Performances, programs, leadership and service opportunities support the organization's ultimate aim to mold the next generation of leaders.

Mission Statement

The mission of the Tri-City Children's Choir is to foster the personal and social growth of its members and engage the community through inspirational musical experiences.

Fast Facts

➤ Leadership

- Ms. Driver has been teaching for over 15 years, including with the Escambia County (FL) School District. She holds advanced degrees from the University of West Florida and is a National Board Certified Teacher.
- Combined, PCC's staff have been teaching in the performing arts for a collective 60+ years.
- 100% of PCC's Board of Directors have C-level or executive-level leadership experience.
- Both parents and students have opportunities to serve in volunteer leadership roles. Some parents serve as Choir Representatives who provide supervisory and administrative support for each of PCC's resident choirs. Singers can apply to serve as teaching interns for choirs which cater to grades 1-8. Additionally, select singers are elected to the Singer Activities Squad, a student council-type group that provides PCC leadership with feedback on the program, organizes special fundraising initiatives, and coordinates singer engagement events.

➤ Fiscal Stability

- Untouched during the COVID-19 pandemic, PCC maintains a reserve account of nearly $320,000 to ensure programs can continue uninterrupted during challenges times.
- In 2016, an endowment was established. Interest is reinvested into the capital with a present value of $400,000.
- To ensure all children can participate regardless of financial need or fluctuating economic circumstances, PCC maintains a reserve account totaling $40,000 for tuition assistance.

Areas for Philanthropic Support

As an individual, foundation representative, or business owner, you are able to direct exactly what your investment will support:

Programs & Performances

Funding for programs and performances (otherwise called "greatest need") will support the day-to-day operations of the Tri-City Children's Choir. Contributions with designation will offset material costs, equipment rental, sheet music, and uniforms. They also will help provide high quality musical instruction and professional services.

Tuition Assistance

TCCC is a tuition-based program. Funding that is designated for tuition assistances provides direct support to families whose financial situations impede their ability to afford a full-price TCCC experience. Families are able to name what they are able to pay for weekly instruction. In turn, donations toward tuition assistance will make up the remainder of the participation cost. Each year, PCC pledges to raise $40,000 in tuition assistance funds in order to ensure that no child is ever unable to participate due to financial need.

Donor or Sponsor: What's the Difference?

You are able to designate your financial contribution as either a donation or a sponsorship. As a donor, you will be recognized in TCCC's concert programs. As an initiative of PCC, your contribution for TCCC is 100% tax-deductible through PCC's charitable status. If you are interested in marketing benefits, please ask for additional sponsorship information.
